

English Course Selection Options

January 14, 2016

Freshman Year

Accelerated English 9

- 6 Credits (one double period or lab per week with Information Literacy during 1st semester)

or

English 9 CP

- 5 Credits

and

Techniques of Writing (1st or 2nd semester)

- 2.5 Credits (4 days of writing instruction, 1 day of Information Literacy instruction)
-

Freshman Year – Genre Approach

□ CP English 9 Literature

- Nonfiction novel unit
- The Odyssey/ Mythology unit
- Romeo and Juliet
- To Kill a Mockingbird
- Catcher in the Rye
- The House on Mango Street
- Short story unit
- Poetry unit

□ Accelerated English 9 Literature

- The Odyssey/Mythology unit
 - To Kill a Mockingbird
 - House on Mango Street
 - Bless Me, Ultima
 - Animal Farm
 - Twelve Angry Men
 - Hiroshima/ Nonfiction unit
 - Catcher in the Rye
 - Ellen Foster
 - Romeo and Juliet
 - Independent novel
 - Research paper
 - Short stories and poetry units
-

Is Accelerated Right for Me?

- Does the student enjoy reading?
 - Does the student read at a quick pace?
 - Does the student enjoy writing?

 - Accelerated courses typically have 1/3 more reading and writing assignments.
-

Accelerated Requirements

- 95 Average
 - Teacher Recommendation

 - All English courses have summer reading assignments.
-

English Electives

- Public Speaking - Fine Art
 - Composing Poetry - Fine Art
 - Film as Art (Grades 11 & 12 only) - Fine Art

 - Yearbook (Grades 10-12) - Practical Art
 - Introduction to Journalism (Grades 9-12) -
Practical Art
-

Sophomore Year

World Literature

- English 10 CP

 - 6 credits (one double period or lab per week)

or

- Accelerated English 10

 - 6 credits (one double period or lab per week)

- as well as any English elective

- See Program of Studies for detailed course information.

Junior Year - American Lit

English 11 CP

or

Accelerated English 11

■ 5 credits

As well as any English elective

See Program of Studies for detailed course information.

Senior Year

- Euro/ Brit Lit or AP/ Electives
- World Lit/ AP/ Electives Class of 2017 only

English 12 CP

AP English Lit

AP English Composition

or

2 semester academic electives (2.5 credits each)

- Shakespeare
- Greek Drama
- Contemporary Novels
- Women's Literature

and

Any English elective

See Program of Studies for detailed course information.