

All scholarship information received in the Counseling Office is posted on the Naviance Family Connection. Students should periodically review the list for scholarships they may be eligible for as the list is constantly being updated. More detailed information for each listed scholarship is available in the Counseling Office.

HMHS Local Scholarship Information will be available before Spring Break.